International Business Horizons - INBUSH 2010

International Business Horizons - INBUSH has been, over the past decade, been appreciated as a rewarding platform for recognizing and acknowledging authentic research contribution of the most applauded academicians, researchers, management and international business experts, industry professionals, and thought leaders.

Held in the month of February, this year's focal point of deliberation and plenary discussions was "Inspiring, Involving & Integrating Individuals for Creating World Class Innovative Organizations".

With ten years of accolades speaking for the magnitude and substance of this event, it is said to be one of the largest and best business summits across the globe. Every year, dignitaries from all round the world gather for this event. The summit also witnesses participation from Cabinet Ministers, Judges from the Supreme Court and the High Courts, Ambassadors & High Commissioners, Members of Parliament, Vice Chancellors, Deans and Directors from reputed International Universities, Noted Academicians, High profile media personalities, Industry Professionals from leading companies and the like.

The Conferences' essence being in facilitating a think tank of innovation ideologies, numerous sessions are organized through the summit where distinguished academicians and enthusiastic management students engage in panel discussions, research paper and case study presentations, plenary sessions, theme based symposiums etcetera followed by soul-stirring cultural extravaganza.
